Mews Mentoring Q2 Cohort

Mentoring at Mews is skills-based and cross-functional by design. Matches are intentionally made across different teams/functions to broaden perspective and support growth.

Most pairs meet 4–5 times across ~5 months. Time spent depends on how you structure your mentoring, but we foresee a minimum total commitment of ~6–10 hours across the cohort (sessions + a bit of prep/follow-up).

Matching is quality-first and places are limited by mentor availability. If we can't match you well this round, we'll share alternatives (peer circles/resources) and next cohort timing so your development still moves forward.

I want to participate as: *

Please note that to be a mentor you do not need to be a manager or leader. Mentoring is a development opportunity for everyone! Just give it a try.

- ◯ Mentee
- ◯ Mentor

Mentees

To match you well, we need: (1) the capability you want to build, (2) your current proficiency, (3) the real scenario you will practice on, and (4) what success looks like in 5 months.
If your goal is still messy, that's okay — we'll use your answers to match you with someone who can help you sharpen it.

11

Select your PRIMARY capability to develop (choose 1), then a SECONDARY capability (choose 1). Before choosing, please review the Global Capability Framework. https://mews.atlassian.net/wiki/x/qYH3J Your selections should reflect real skills you want to actively practice — not just topics you find interesting. We strongly encourage you to think beyond your current role. This program is designed for cross-functional mentoring, so the best matches often happen when you explore capabilities outside your day-to-day scope. *

12

Mentee primary Domain Expertise: please add a bit more detail about your domain (if you selected domain expertise). We may not know the specifics, so this helps us match you with the right mentor. Include:

- your domain area (e.g., Payments, Integrations, Revenue, Security...)
- what part you want to develop (or can mentor on)
- any context that would help (optional)

13

Mentee, rate your CURRENT proficiency in your PRIMARY capability:

- 1 - New to this / I struggle often
- 2 - Developing / inconsistent
- 3 - Solid / works in most situations
- 4 - Strong / works in complex situations

15

Mentee goal (use the exact format below) *

Prompt (include in description):

Use this exact format so we can match you precisely:
"In the next 5 months, I want to improve [CAPABILITY] by practicing [SPECIFIC BEHAVIOUR] in [SPECIFIC SCENARIO], so that [IMPACT]. I'll know it worked because [MEASURABLE EVIDENCE]."

We have prepped a confluence page for you to help you state one. This might be helpful also in case you're not selected as a mentee, use this guide to set your development goals! https://mews.atlassian.net/wiki/x/LYGdVw

16

Mentee practice scenarios you will use as your "practice arena" *

Please select 2

Please select 2 options.

- [ ] Influence without authority (stakeholder alignment)
- [ ] Driving decisions across teams
- [ ] Managing conflict/tension constructively
- [ ] Delivering hard feedback / tough conversations
- [ ] Assertiveness & boundaries (saying no / pushing back)
- [ ] Exec-ready communication & presence
- [ ] Writing for clarity (docs, async comms, decision notes)
- [ ] Prioritisation & execution systems (focus, trade-offs, planning)
- [ ] Problem framing from messy situations (turning chaos into options)
- [ ] Leading through ambiguity / shifting priorities
- [ ] Customer escalation / customer-first trade-offs
- [ ] Project planning and delivery (scope, timelines, risks)
- [ ] Other

17

What kind of mentor help do you want most? (pick 2) *

Please select 2 options.

- [ ] Someone who will challenge my thinking (direct, honest)
- [ ] Someone who gives practical tools/templates
- [ ] Someone who role-plays tough moments with me
- [ ] Someone who helps structure decisions and trade-offs
- [ ] Someone who shares "I've been there" stories + lessons learned
- [ ] Someone who holds me accountable between sessions
- [ ] Someone who can help me navigate stakeholder dynamics at Mews
- [ ] Other

18

Are you open to being mentored by someone who is mentoring for the first time? *

- Yes - totally fine
- Yes - as long as they have strong experience in the skill area I selected
- Maybe - I'd prefer someone who has mentored before
- No - I only want a mentor with prior mentoring experience

19

Session style preference

- Highly structured (agenda + actions)
- Light structure (themes + experiments)
- Flexible (conversation-led) 20

Feedback style preference *

- Direct & candid
- Balanced (direct but warm)
- Gentle & encouraging
- Questions-first coaching

Mentors

To match confidently, we need: (1) what you can mentor on (capabilities + scenarios), (2) evidence you've handled it well (real story), (3) your style, and (4) what you will NOT mentor on.
Please be specific - vague answers are difficult to match fairly.

21

Why do you want to mentor, and what do you hope to get out of it? *

Please answer in 3–5 sentences. Bonus: add one line on what would make this a great mentoring experience for you.

22

How many mentees would you like to mentor? *

We advice no more than two.

23

Is this your first time mentoring someone (formally) in a program like this? *

- ◯ Yes, this is my first time
- ◯ No, I've mentored before (informally or formally)
- ◯ Yes and no - I've helped people a lot, but never in a formal program

24

Mentor support: What support would help you feel confident as a mentor? (pick up to 2)

We can't grant every wish… but we can definitely find a good workaround 😊

Please select 2 options.

- [ ] A short mentor onboarding (how to structure sessions)
- [ ] Example questions / session agendas
- [ ] Guidance on goal-setting with mentees
- [ ] Tips for giving feedback / handling sensitive moments
- [ ] Office hours with program team
- [ ] I'm good - I'll figure it out
- [ ] Other

25

Select the capabilities you feel confident mentoring others in (choose as many as apply).
Before choosing, please review the Global Capability Framework:
https://mews.atlassian.net/wiki/x/qYH3J *

Focus on capabilities where you can share concrete experience, examples, and practical guidance — not just areas you're familiar with in theory.

26

Mentor Domain Expertise: If you selected domain expertise, please tell us what your domain is and what you feel confident mentoring on. We might not know all the specifics, so this helps us match you with the right mentee. Include:

- Your domain area (e.g., Payments, Integrations, Revenue, Security, Marketplace…)
- Your experience level / scope (optional)
- What topics you can support most (1–3 bullets)

27

Mentor Secondary Domain expertise: As you have selected this one, we need more info. Please give us more information about this skill. We might not know all the specifics about your domain; therefore it is really important for us to know more.

28

Mentor proficiency in your PRIMARY capability *

- 1 - Basic awareness
- 2 - Working knowledge
- 3 -Solid practitioner
- 4 - Strong in complex situations
- 5 - Recognised expert / go-to person

- [ ] Driving decisions across teams
- [ ] Managing conflict/tension constructively
- [ ] Delivering hard feedback / tough conversations
- [ ] Assertiveness & boundaries (saying no / pushing back)
- [ ] Exec-ready communication & presence
- [ ] Writing for clarity (docs, async comms, decision notes)
- [ ] Prioritisation & execution systems (focus, trade-offs, planning)
- [ ] Problem framing from messy situations (turning chaos into options)
- [ ] Leading through ambiguity / shifting priorities
- [ ] Customer escalation / customer-first trade-offs
- [ ] Project planning and delivery (scope, timelines, risks)
- [ ] Other

30

Share an example of a time you had a meaningful impact on someone else's growth (as a mentor, coach, or supporter). What did you do, and what changed for them? *

31

Mentor strengths: What do you naturally bring to mentoring sessions? *

Please select 3 options.

- [ ] I challenge thinking (direct, reflective, honest)
- [ ] I provide practical tools/templates
- [ ] I role-play tough moments
- [ ] I help structure decisions and trade-offs
- [ ] I share "I've been there" stories + lessons learned
- [ ] I hold people accountable between sessions
- [ ] I help navigate stakeholder dynamics at Mews
- [ ] Other

32

Mentor session Style *

- ◯ Highly structured (agenda + actions)
- ◯ Light structure (themes + experiments)
- ◯ Flexible (conversation-led)

33

What are the skills you prefer NOT to support? *

Before choosing, please review the Global Capability Framework: https://mews.atlassian.net/wiki/x/qYH3J

34

Practice scenarios you prefer NOT to support (multi-select) *

- [ ] Influence without authority (stakeholder alignment)
- [ ] Driving decisions across teams
- [ ] Managing conflict/tension constructively
- [ ] Delivering hard feedback / tough conversations
- [ ] Assertiveness & boundaries (saying no / pushing back)

- [ ] Customer escalation / customer-first trade-offs
- [ ] Project planning and delivery (scope, timelines, risks)

35

Anything else that would make a match not work for you? (optional)

Do not only focus on behavioral aspects (we might not know how others behave). Think about:
Time differences, areas of the business, level of seniority.... Let us know the reason!

End

Thank you. Matches are built for quality and fit. If you're not matched this round, we'll follow up with next steps (waitlist, alternatives, and next cohort timing) so your development still moves forward.
Have questions? reach out to irene.ferrigno@mews.com

Maybe next time?

Thank you - based on your answers, we won't move forward with this cohort application.
This cohort requires aligned expectations (mentoring vs line management) and a minimum commitment of ~6–10 hours over ~5 months to ensure matches are fair and effective.
If you'd like, you can still take a next step today:

- Book time with your manager to set a short-term skill goal https://app.glean.com/chat/agents/a342601f078e47efaf87a14b506b8f96
- Use a goal-setting template and reapply next cohort

Thanks again, we'll share the next cohort timing when applications reopen.
